3. BOUNDS. (Para 204 2 NZ Div ROs is repeated)

Units are again reminded that the Camp Laundry is OUT OF BOUNDS to all ranks except on duty. At present large numbers of men are taking their own washing to the Camp Laundry and making their own arrangements with the staff employed there. This practice is seriously affecting the efficiency of the official laundry and will cease forthwith. Offenders will be dealt with.

4. PERSONNEL FOR VACCINATION.

All Ranks of this Unit who spent leave at NATHANIYA Leave Camp between 23 May and 1st June (inclusive) will report to nearest M.O. for vaccination. At check parade tomorrow morning Coy Comdrs will make enquiries to this end, and will submit names to this HQ by 0900 hrs. HLL reports are required.

5. DRESS.

A great deal is still necessary for improvement in the dress of personnel of this Bn both in and out of camp. Personnel are warned that unless a decided improvement is shown in the next two days LEAVE will be cancelled. Coy Officers will check and see that this warning order is carried out.
