

Regiment.	Name.	Acts of Courage for which recommended.
Protectorate Regiment	Sergeant H. R. Martineau	On the 26th December, 1899, during the fight at Game Tree, near Mafeking, when the order to retire had been given, Sergeant Martineau stopped and picked up Corporal Le Camp, who had been struck down about 10 yards from the Boer trenches, and half dragged, half carried, him towards a bush about 150 yards from the trenches. In doing this Sergeant Martineau was wounded in the side, but paid no attention to it, and proceeded to stanch and bandage the wounds of his comrade, whom he, afterwards, assisted to retire. The firing while they were retiring was very heavy and Sergeant Martineau was again wounded. When shot the second time he was absolutely exhausted from supporting his comrade, and sank down unable to proceed further. He received three wounds, one of which necessitated the amputation of his arm near the shoulder.
Protectorate Regiment	Trooper H. E. Ramsden	On the 26th December, 1899, during the fight at Game Tree, near Mafeking, after the order to retire was given, Trooper H. E. Ramsden picked up his brother, Trooper A. E. Ramsden, who had been shot through both legs and was lying about 10 yards from the Boer trenches, and carried him about 600 or 800 yards under a heavy fire (putting him down from time to time for a rest) till they met some men who helped to carry him to a place of safety.

Board of Trade (Fisheries and Harbour Department), London, July 4, 1900.

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch, dated 25th June, from Her Majesty's Representative at Sofia, communicating the following summary of the contents of an Order (No. 292) of the Bulgarian Minister of the Interior prescribing the manner in which the medical inspection of travellers arriving from non-infected parts of the Ottoman Empire is to be carried out:—

1. Paragraph 5 of the Order No. 225 of the 28th of April (11th of May) is cancelled.

2. Passengers by the Orient Express from Constantinople will consequently be subjected at Hebitchevo to medical inspection in the same manner as passengers by other trains coming from Turkey, in conformity with paragraph 4 of Order No. 225.

3. The inhabitants of Turkish frontier districts may enter Bulgaria without undergoing a medical inspection.

4. But the frontier-guards will be careful to prevent any other persons from entering the country under cover of the above permission.

5. The Mayors of places in which persons arriving from Turkey take up their residence will keep a watch upon them and inform the medical authority immediately of the appearance of any illness among them.
